Instant Sunshine is a unique musical comedy team that has been entertaining audiences for fifty years with its particular blend of humorous, witty songs and hilarious routines.

They take a sideways look at everyday life in a beguiling and funny style all of their own.

Instant Sunshine has played festivals, theatres and draughty marquees in the UK and around the globe and the group performed on BBC Radio 4's Stop the Week with Robert Robinson for 18 years. They have written and performed many signature tunes for radio and television, including One is Fun, Money Box and Constant Hot Water.

"What they are is very, very entertaining"..... Scotsman

"Expert comic timing – genuinely literate cabaret"..... New York Times

"Much the best of the Funnies"..... Financial Times
